GOVERNMENT WILL PROTECT CRAZY SNAKE

Deputy Marshal Sent After Old Chief. State Will Try to Get Possession by Court's Action.

Special to the Eagle.

Guthrie, Okla., April 9.—Government officials announced today that they will comply with Crazy Snake's appeal for protection. Federal Marshal John Abernathy, of the Western district of Oklahoma has sent Deputy Marshal Tegham on the trail of the fugitive chief and word was received at Henryetta today that the deputy would soon find the chief. It is expected that the state authorities will try to secure possession of Crazy Snake through the action of the courts.

NEW YORK OBSERVES GOOD-FRIDAY.

Special to the Eagle.
New York, April 9.—Good Friday was marked this year in the manner traditional in New York, by a practical suspension of all business in the financial district and by elaborate services in many of the churches. The six exchanges of the city—New York stock, consolidated stock, cotton, coffee, produce and Metal—are closed for the rest of the week, to reopen Monday.

GOOD FRIDAY IN CHICAGO.

Special to the Eagle.
Chicago, April 9.—Chicago observed Good Friday with the closing of the exchanges and banks and with services in the Catholic churches and in numerous Protestant churches.

NACOGDOCHES CUTS OUT TELEPHONES.

Special to the Eagle.
Nacogdoches, Texas, April 9.—On account of a big increase in the rates by the Southwestern Telephone Co., nearly every business house in the city today ordered telephones removed and gangmen are now busy taking them out.

SHOOTING SCRAPE BETWEEN AMERICANS IN MEXICO.

Special to the Eagle.
El Paso, Texas, April 9.—News was received here today that R. Barth of San Antonio, Texas, has shot and seriously wounded Dr. George Brown of Tampico, Mexico. The cause of the trouble is not stated. Barth was arrested. The man who did the shooting is partially paralyzed.

MCUE JURY DISAGREED.

Special to the Eagle.
Fort Worth, Texas, April 9.—Though a majority favored acquitting Frank McCue, charged with killing Earl Mabry in Dallas two years ago, the jury after deliberating two full days reported this morning that they could not agree and was discharged by Judge Simmons. The first ballot showed eight to four and the last nine to three, the majority in both cases favoring acquittal. This is the second mistrial of this case. Fearing for his safety, McCue declines to accept bail, preferring the security of the jail.

SCHOOLBOY DROPPED DEAD.

Special to the Eagle.
Alpine, Texas, April 9.—Having inherited heart weakness, an infirmity that has caused the death of several members of his father's family, Fred, the fourteen-year-old son of Tom J. Miller, dropped dead in the school-room here this morning, while his grade was marching out for recess. The lad was apparently in good health and three of his older brothers have been prominent among the local amateur athletics. His father, T. J. Miller is a state surveyor and was at the last election a candidate for county judge.

COTTON BAGGING STAYS ON PROTECTED LIST. CRUDE OIL ON FREE LIST.

Special to the Eagle.
Washington, D. C., April 9.—The attempt today to put cotton bagging on the free list in the tariff bill failed in the house, the vote being 170 to 130. The duty of one per cent on crude oil was cancelled and it was placed on the free list.

WACO-TEMPLE INTERURBAN

New York Capital Ready to Build It. Meeting Today to Raise Bonus and Secure Right of Way.

Special to the Eagle.

Waco, Texas, April 9.—Mayor Jas. B. Baker of this city received a dispatch this morning from Max Elser of New York saying that capitalists of that city have prepared plans to close the contract for building the interurban railroad line from Waco to Temple, provided a bonus of one hundred thousand dollars and the right-of-way are assured. A meeting will be held this afternoon and the necessary steps will be taken.

HIGHWAY ROBBER CONVICTED.

Special to the Eagle.
Tulsa, Okla., April 9.—Tom Crowell was convicted of highway robbery in the district court here today and given a life sentence in the penitentiary. The charge was robbing two men of seventy-five dollars about a year ago.

REV. GEORGE STEWART COMING.

Dr. Thos. H. Morris informed the Eagle reporter today that Rev. George Stewart, the great Tennessee evangelist, would be in Bryan and lecture at the First Methodist church on the night of May 4th. Rev. Stewart is one of the best known preachers in the South and the church will no doubt be crowded by those who wish to hear him again.

THE REVIVAL.

Good congregations are attending the revival in progress at the Baptist church and the interest is increasing with each service. Rev. Hale is preaching some masterful sermons and those who are not attending the services are missing some great treats. The music under direction of Prof. Hunt, is fine and is proving to be an enjoyable feature of the services.

The pastor earnestly urges that the children attend the service tomorrow morning with their parents.

The announcements for Sunday will be made tomorrow afternoon
